Chapter 2: Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act

Article 1: General Provisions

§ 209. Change of designated office or agent for service of process

Cite as: 18 CNCA § 209

A. A limited liability company may change its designated principal office or resident agent for service of process by delivering to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing a statement of change which sets forth:

1. the name of the company;
2. the street address of its current designated office;
3. if the current designated principal office is to be changed, the street address of the designated office;
4. the name and address of its current resident agent for service of process; and
5. if the current resident agent for service of process or street address of that resident agent is to be changed, the new address or the name and street address of the new agent for service of process.

B. Unless otherwise provided in the statement, the change of address of the principal office or resident agent is effective when the Office of the Principal Chief files the statement.
