Article 7: Winding Up Limited Liability Company's Business

§ 247. Article of dissolution

Cite as: 18 CNCA § 247

A. At any time after dissolution and winding up, a limited liability company may terminate its existence by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief articles of dissolution stating:

1. the name of the limited liability company;
2. the date of filing of its articles of organization;
3. the reason for filing the articles of dissolution;
4. the effective date of the articles of dissolution, if they are not to be effective upon the filing; and
5. any other information the members or managers filing the certificate determine.

B. The existence of a limited liability company is terminated upon the filing of the articles of dissolution, or upon a later effective date, if specified in the articles of dissolution.
